Description:

All of us have poems and stories inside of us— experiences begging to travel the path from our minds to written lines. But, how to do this? In this workshop, literary performer Regie Gibson, will take you through his fun, easy, creative, step-by-step process of making small, meaningful written texts out of small, meaningful moments.

Come with a few sheets of paper, something to write with, and a willingness to listen to those who volunteer to share their work.

Regie Gibson is a literary performer and former National Poetry Slam Champion who has lectured & presented widely in the U.S., Cuba, & Europe. He is featured in love jones, a film based on events in his life & is the co-creator of The Shakespeare Time-Traveling Speakeasy— a theatrical, literary-concert focusing on the life of William Shakespeare.
